The Yale Peabody Museum is hosting a food drive in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Join us in collecting non-perishable food items for the New Haven Community Soup Kitchen and Christian Community Action.

Suggested donations include:

- Beans
- Beef or Chicken Bouillon
- Canned Vegetables
- Cereal (hot or cold)
- Chicken Base
- Coffee or Tea
- Cranberry Sauce
- Granola Bars
- Garlic Powder
- Gravy
- Ground Black Pepper
- Jelly
- Juice
- Mashed Potato Flakes
- Pasta
- Peanut Butter
- Rice
- Salt or Season Salt
- Small Boxes of Raisins
- Soup
- Spaghetti Sauce
- Stuffing
- Tuna
- Yams

Donations will be collected from November 21st through January 17th. All donations should be in cans, boxes, plastic containers or other sealed packages. We cannot accept any items past their expiration date.

Please bring donations to:

Yale Peabody Museum of Natural History
170 Whitney Avenue, New Haven

For more information email peabody.events@yale.edu or call (203) 432-6646.

Thanks to our presenting sponsor COMCAST

We also thank Yale African American Affinity Group, Subway, Stop & Stop, Connecticut Department of Energy and Environmental Protection, Yale University Office of New Haven and State Affairs