Access Agreement

I agree to the following conditions of access to the Sifaka Database:

i) No 3rd party sharing of data or materials without explicit written permission; 3rd party sharing will be approved only after a comparable, direct agreement has been made with that party;

ii) no use of the Database or associated materials other than that specified in the original agreement without explicit written permission;

iii) provision of a brief written update to the Steering Committee Chair one year after approval and thereafter until closure;

iv) The user must include the following citation in any publication making use of the Database:

Users are also encouraged to take note of the list of contributors and include recognition, as appropriate, in their Acknowledgments.

v) provision of one copy of each resulting publication to the Steering Committee Chair, to be archived with the Database, and one copy to ESSA.

I further agree to the following specific conditions of use:
