

We look forward to your upcoming group visit to the Yale Peabody Museum. The following information will help to ensure a fun and successful visit!

Before your visit:

- Be sure your reservation is confirmed. All groups must register at least three weeks in advance and will receive a confirmation email once a date has been assigned.
- Recruit chaperones. We require 1 chaperone for every 8 students in grades 1-3, 1:10 for grades 4-8 and 1:12 for grades 9-12. Chaperones must remain with their group at all times. If chaperones are arriving separately, arrange to have them meet the group at the Group Entrance.
- Identify your learning goals, and prepare students to seek out relevant concepts, ideas, and objects. For assistance, please email peabody.education@yale.edu
- Prepare nametags for students and chaperones which include the name of the school, and provide each chaperone with a list of names and phone numbers.
- If eating in the museum, ask students to bring lunches in disposable bags, labeled with their names. If possible, place lunches for each class into separate large bags. One large rolling bin will be available to your group for storing lunches. Food and drinks are not permitted in the museum galleries.

Day of your visit:

- If traveling by bus, provide your driver with directions (page 4) to the group drop-off lane on Sachem Street. The drop off can be accessed from Whitney Ave. This is a drop-off lane only, no parking is available. We strongly encourage you to share your contact info with your bus driver and ask for their contact as well.
- Encourage students to leave heavy or bulky items on the bus. There is limited space for storage in the museum.
- Provide chaperones with a copy of the Chaperone Template (page 3) and schedule for your visit. Your greeter will provide maps to chaperones upon arrival.
- Hand out any activity sheets that you have prepared for students. We encourage activities that allow students to explore in small groups and make observations. Please provide pencils if using worksheets.
- Print a copy of your group check in sheet. Write the total number of students and teachers on the sheet. You'll hand this to the greeter who checks in your group.

- After a greeter provides a brief orientation on your bus, disembark and gather your group on the Sachem Street Plaza. Your greeter will collect lunches and you are ready to explore! If group members are arriving separately, please wait on the plaza until the entire group arrives.
- Limited parking is available for group members that drive separately. The museum's parking lot at the corner of Whitney & Humphrey. Tickets must be validated at the front desk.
- If a greeter is not present at the group entrance when you arrive, please ring the intercom to the left of the group entrance and someone will come to greet you. If your group is arriving late, arriving early, or is no longer able to visit, please call the Education Department at 203-432-0950 or email peabody.education@yale.edu.

During Your Visit

- Restrooms are located on every floor of the museum. Please bring students in small groups to avoid congestion. Sinks for hand washing are also in the lunch room.
- The museum store may only accommodate one group at a time. Be prepared to queue outside the store.
- Some things in the museum are touchable. Many things, especially those behind glass, are not. Encourage students to check with chaperones before touching.
- Live animals are in the Living Lab. Please remind students to be respectful of the animals in their homes by not tapping, knocking or shouting.
- Please speak with a Museum Guard if a person from your group is lost.
- The Group Lunchroom is located on the Lower Level in the Education Wing. To access this room, take the elevator located next to the lobby and group entrance.

Departure

- If you need to collect things from your group's storage bin, please make a request at the front desk a few minutes before departure.
- Contact your bus driver before departure and ask them to meet you in at the Sachem Street bus drop-off/pick-up area.
- After your visit, please complete the post-visit survey, which will be sent to your registration email post visit. In the days after the visit, ask students to draw, write, or present about their experience.
