

Museum Expectations

Yale Peabody Museum

Department of Public Education & Outreach

Museum Manners

preK-2

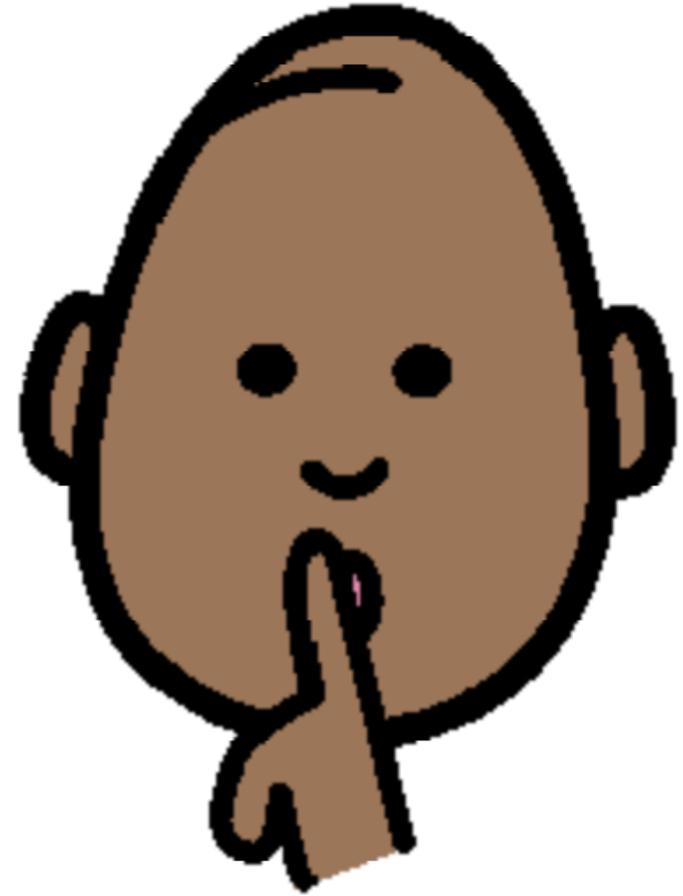

Museum Manners – preK-2

- Walk like a turtle, not a cheetah!
- Use your whisper voice, not your playground voice!
- Only touch the things with a “touch me” sign!
- Stay close to your teacher or grown-up buddy!
- Be kind to museum helpers—they're here to help you learn!

1. Walk like a turtle, not a cheetah!

2. Use your whisper voice, not your playground voice!

3. Only touch the things with a “touch me” sign!

4. Stay close to your teacher or grown-up buddy!

5. Be kind to museum helpers—they're here to help you learn!

Museum Guidelines

Grades 4-8

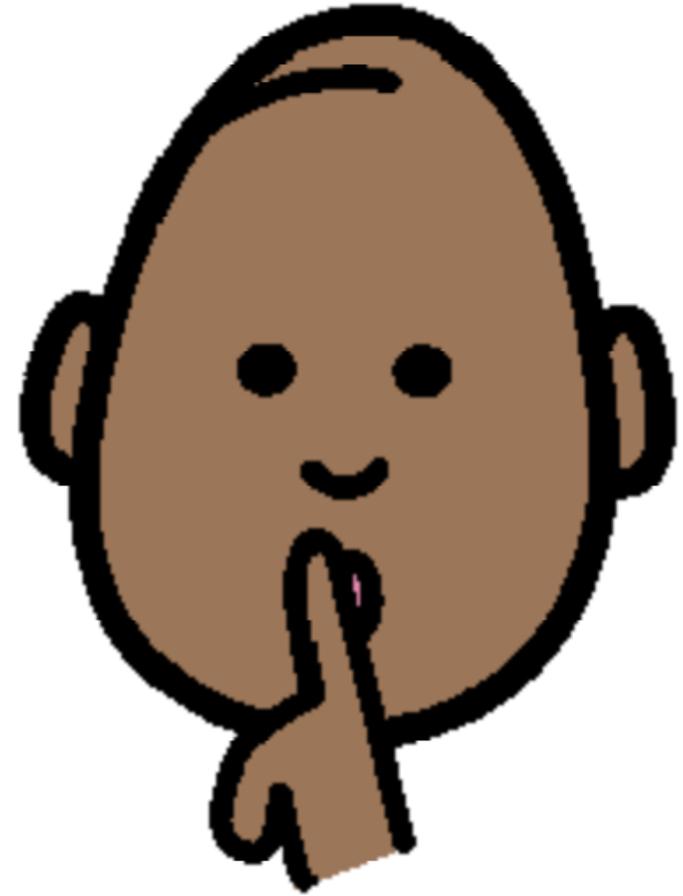

Museum Manners – Grades 4-8

- Please walk—running can be unsafe and disruptive.
- Use indoor voices so everyone can enjoy the space.
- Touch only the objects marked “okay to touch.”
- Stay with your group and adult chaperone at all times.
- Show respect to museum staff, rules, and exhibits.

1. Please walk—running can be unsafe and disruptive.

2. Use indoor voices so everyone can enjoy the space.

3. Touch only the objects marked “okay to touch.”

4. Stay with your group and adult chaperone at all times.

5. Show respect to museum staff, rules, and exhibits.

Museum Expectations

Grades 9-12

A variety of aquamarine with quartz, mica, and albite
Valley, Gbagu, Burkina Faso

Quartz
Pura (Kamby-Mare) Australasian Group
Russia
On loan from the Mineralogical
and The Mineral Trust

Spodumene variety kunzite
with quartz and albite
Chagbura, Kasa, Afghanistan
On loan from the Mineralogical
and The Mineral Trust

Museum Expectations – Grades 9-12

- Walk calmly—this helps preserve a peaceful experience for everyone.
- Keep voices low and conversations thoughtful.
- Interact only with objects that are labeled for hands-on engagement.
- Remain with your group and assigned adult at all times.
- Respect all museum staff, signage, and instructions—you're representing yourself & your school.

1. Walk calmly—this helps preserve a peaceful experience for everyone.

2. Keep voices low
and conversations thoughtful.

3. Interact only with objects that are labeled for hands-on engagement.

4. Remain with your group and assigned adult at all times.

5. Respect all museum staff, signage, and instructions - you're representing yourself & your school.

